Traffic Planning and Design, Inc. Adds Downtown Pittsburgh Office

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Pittsburgh, PA – Traffic Planning and Design, Inc (TPD) is pleased to announce the opening of their newest office in downtown Pittsburgh, PA. The 135-member transportation engineering firm selected “America’s Most Livable City,” and specifically, the Regional Enterprise Tower (Alcoa Building) as the location for their new office based on shared values that exist among the City, the Tower, and TPD. Of particular importance is an emphasis on quality of life initiatives that continue to transform the City, constitute the Tower’s unique mission, and form the basis of TPD’s commitment to remain an award-winning “Great Place To Work.”

Along with providing quality Transportation Engineering and related services since 1989, TPD is consistently recognized for their consistent dedication to improving quality of life for both employees and the surrounding community. The company has been ranked among the Top 15 Best Places to Work In PA for five consecutive years and has been hailed by Civil Engineering News Magazine as one of the Top 25 Best Civil Engineering Firms to Work for in the United States for four consecutive years. Furthermore, TPD is one of only twenty-three firms in the United States to receive the distinguished Pinnacle Award for demonstrated success in maintaining steady growth and prioritizing investment in exceptional workplace practices.

TPD specializes in providing transportation planning, highway and traffic signal design, bridge design and inspection, environmental permitting, and construction management and inspection services to municipal, state (DOT), and private clients. With five locations, including PA offices in Pittsburgh, Harrisburg, Lehigh Valley and Pottstown, and an office in Camden, NJ, TPD prides itself on operating as “One Company with Multiple Locations” as a way to leverage the considerable expertise of our professional staff to achieve project success. TPD’s strategically-located network of offices also enables the firm to provide high quality service, responsiveness, and local knowledge for the benefit of clients, teaming partners, and ultimately, the traveling public.
